

About the African Sisters

The African Sisters do amazing work transforming the lives of mothers and vulnerable children in the communities where they live. They have 11 houses in Tanzania and one in Zambia. They belong to the Anglican Community of St Mary.

The Sisters are self-supporting mainly through farming but that depends on rainfall, which is increasingly unreliable. They plant trees which can be harvested for timber in less than ten years and help the environment by conserving water and growing green leaf crops.

Mother Dorothy writes:

On behalf of the Community of St Mary, we are very grateful to all who are supporting us, spiritually and financially. God bless!

What the Sisters do

Education

- Run nursery and primary classes for orphaned and other vulnerable children
- Provide primary school fees, books and uniform for children whose families cannot afford them
- Manage a hostel for secondary school girls so they can have safe board and lodging
- Receive training to become teachers, nurses and midwives

Health

- Give guidance in prevention of HIV/AIDS to young women in villages
- Work in local clinics and hospitals
- Train young mothers in hygiene and baby care

How you can help

£9 pays for an orphan to attend nursery school for one month

£20 pays for a girl to stay at the Sisters' hostel for one month

£260 pays for a water-harvesting tank. The Sisters are gradually installing tanks at their projects so that precious rainfall is not wasted.

About the Support Group

All the money donated via the African Sisters Support Group goes direct to the Sisters to maintain and expand the services they offer, especially to women and vulnerable children.

At least one member of the Support Group visits Tanzania or Zambia every year to keep up-to-date with how the Sisters' projects are progressing.

No fundraising donations go towards the costs of travel or administration.

From our Patron, the Rt Revd Anthony Priddis, former Bishop of Hereford:

'Having seen them at work I continue to be inspired by how much the African Sisters do and how they bring hope to people who often have very little hope.'
